- Dwight D. Eisenhower 1961

Every gun that is made, every warship launched, every rocket fired signifies, in the final sense, a theft from those
who hunger and are not fed,
those who are cold and are not clothed.
This world in arms is not spending money alone.
It is spending the sweat of its laborers,
the genius of its scientists,
the hopes of its children.

- Yes, I want to be in charge, and dictate policy to elected representatives.
- Yes, I want to live like a medieval tyrant on the backs of other people's labour, but still be thought of as a decent sort of chap, and maybe even get a knighthood.
